

Alan (Al) Scott

- Born in Loughborough, England in 1963
- Class "A" PGA of Canada
- University of Manitoba Certificate in Management
- Director of Golf Course Operations for Lakeland Golf Management
- Golf Professional:
 - Assistant/Associate Elmhurst Golf and Country Club – 1982 to 1988
 - Head Professional Selkirk Golf and Country Club – 1989 to 1997
 - Head Professional Grand Pines Golf Course (Lakeland Golf Management) – 1997 to 2005
 - Director of Golf Links at the Lake Golf Course (Lakeland Golf Management) – 2006 to present
- Manitoba PGA Professional of the Year in 1992 and 1993
- Manitoba PGA Player of the Year in 1995
- Multiple winner of one day Professional Events, e.g. Pro Ams with low competitive scores of 64 in St. Charles Pro Am; 65 in Rossmere Crown Life Pro Am; 66 in Niakwa Pro Am and 66 in Pine Ridge Pro Am
- Was member of Manitoba Assistant Professionals Board of Directors in the middle 80's and moved on to the Manitoba Zone Board where he served on multiple committees and was President in 1995 and 1996
- In 1993, joined the Canadian PGA Board of Directors, served on multiple committees, and was President in 2004 and 2005
- During his presidency of CPGA the organization was without an Executive Director for 11 months during which Al led the Association as a volunteer for the betterment of the CPGA and as a result the CPGA enjoyed a positive financial turnaround under his leadership
- Involved in initial meetings between RCGA and CLGA that led to the development of the Future Links Junior Program
- Also involved in discussions that led to the creation of the National Allied Golf Associations
- Strong supporter of golf development, especially junior golf
- Al started the "Selkirk Little Swingers" that introduced over 500 children to golf between the ages of 4 to 9 over a 6 year period
- In the CPGA biography for Al he was commended for his "...passion & devotion to the game, his loyalty & his tireless dedication to the Canadian PGA. He is a true ambassador, a leader & one of the Association's most memorable national officers."